

WARNING: Due to the extensive tree damage which resulted from the December 12 ice storm, many forest roads and trails at multiple facilities in the West and Central regions may be impassable by snowmobile and unsafe to hike, ski or snowshoe. As the snow melts it may expose debris and obstacles on the trails. Please call the Park Headquarters number on the facility's web page for current trail conditions or to report any trail conditions.

Facilities Impacted:

Beartown State Forest

Chester Blandford State Forest

DAR State Forest

Dubuque Memorial State Forest

Erving State Forest (includes Mt. Grace, Warwick, Northfield and Orange)

Granville State Forest

H.O. Cook State Forest

Holyoke Range State Park

Lake Dennison Recreation Area-including campground and day use area

Leominster State Forest

Monroe State Forest

Moore State Park

Mount Greylock State Reservation

Mount Everett State Reservation

Mt. Tom State Reservation

Mt. Holyoke Range- All trails have been opened with the exception of the ridge/M&M trail from the Notch Visitors Center to the summit house on Skinner.

October Mountain State Forest

Otter River State Forest (includes Womens Fed and Lake Dennison Rec. Area)

Pittsfield State Forest

Rutland State Park

Sandisfield State Forest

Savoy Mountain State Forest

Spencer State Forest

Tolland State Forest

Wachusett Mountain State Reservation

Willard Brook State Forest

Women's Federated (primitive campground)